

ATRA trail riding site description

Destination Name: Ministik Bird Sanctuary

Latitude: Twp. Rd 504A

Longitude:RR 215

Distance from Edmonton: 28.4 kms/ East fromWhitemud Overpass to RR 215

5.6 Kms south from Hwy 14 to Staging Area (last 2.3 Kms gravel)

Road type and condition: paved	km/miles
good gravel	km/miles
rough road	km/miles

Driving directions and any other comments on road to this destination:

From west of Edmonton: Hwy 19 from Devon to Hwy 21. Continue across Hwy 21. The road becomes Twp 504 to RR 221 T intersection. North 100 yds, then east 1 mile to Staging Area

Nearest fuel to destination: km/miles gas/diesel Ministik Service Station, approx 6 km

Reservations are: not taken / recommended / required Not Required

Cost ($/day) : Free

Trails suitable for: short rides only / day rides / overnight rides DAY RIDES

Trail number and variety suitable for visit lasting: day / weekend / week DAY

Facilities for horses: corrals / highline / stalls / river water nearby / tapwater at site

Field for staging area – no services

Shoes for horses are: not needed / recommended / essential -- NOT NEEDED

Facilities for people: day use only / campsites / water at site / pit toilets / flush toilets / showers / no services camping - self contained camping only –Outhouse at staging area, and field toilet at lunch stop(The Diner), NO CAMPING

Other notes or comments on facilities for horses or people

The main equestrian trail is now marked with Blue diamonds. . Typical ride is 4-6 hours. Open for Equestrian use July 15 to March 1

Destination contact name: MURRAY FEW (780) 434-2000